

Meg Black
USEF "r" Judge
Islewood Farm

99 Reach Road Deer Isle, Maine 04627
207-348-9919
islewoodfarm@yahoo.com

Horse Show Judging Experience

- USEF "r" in Hunters and Hunt Seat Equitation, "R" in Hunter Breeding
- Judged for NEHC, Central Maine Riding Association, and Joy Valley Riders in the Maine/New England regions. Judged for Harford County, Howard County and Baltimore County Horse Show Associations in the Central Maryland Area as well as for Bridge Acres Stable, and Caves Farm, among others in the Mid-Atlantic regions, also twice judged Eastern Amateur Arabian Horse Show
- Recently completed USEF Hunter and Hunter Seat Equitation judging clinics in West Palm Beach, Florida, and Centenary College, Hackettstown, NJ, Hunter Breeding Clinic in Charlottesville, Virginia and Jumper judging clinic, also in West Palm Beach

Learner Judging-USEF "A" rated

- RMI Tri-State II, Cleveland, TN, April 7-9, 2006
- Wyndsor Farm, Elverson, PA, April 29, 2006
- Garden State Horse Show, Augusta, NJ, May 4-6, 2006
- St. Christopher's Horse Show, Quentin, PA May 10-12, 2006
- Mystic Summer Festival, Gales Ferry, CT, August 31-September 2, 2006

Current

Islewood Farm, Deer Isle, Maine
Owner/Instructor

- Teach students of varying ages and abilities on my experienced school horses and to riders on their own horses, coach students at competitions, and buy and sell hunter/jumper prospects

Prior Experience

Linden Hall School for Girls, Lititz, PA
July 1992 to September 2003
Director of Riding

- Oversaw daily operation of a busy 20 stall facility, acted as primary instructor for over 75 students, managed 10-12 horse shows per year and coached students at both local and USEF rated competitions with numerous championships

Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, PA
September 1999 to May 2003
Intercollegiate Equestrian Team Coach

- Coached college riders at home, hosted Intercollegiate competitions and qualified riders for regional and zone finals, including an athlete finishing in the top ten at Nationals in Advanced Equitation on the Flat in 2002